April Ads. Bring May "Scads" To landlords whose ads. for tenants are sent to a newspaper that the people read. Those who trust to a house bill or a paper with little circulation are invariably left to waddle out of a flood of financial difficulties as best they may. A large number of house-hunters is on the move this present month whose line of march is formed from the house-to-rent columns of the STATE JOURNAL. A line or two in those columns will signal it your way. Can you afford to miss it?

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I welghed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 120%. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Starr, Pottsville, Pa. October 12, 1892.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $I per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains beithes opiates nor dangerous drugs.

Fire alarms are sounded upon the tower bell at department headquarters by striking the number of the signal station nearest the fire, in this manner: If for box 4, four distinct strokes and repeated, if for box 13, one stroke, a short pause, then three strokes, and repeated, thus, 1-HI, 1-HI, etc. *22" is sounded for all fires within the district bounded by Fifth, Ninth, Jackson and Quincy streets.

TEN STROKES, and repeated, followed by the number of the signal station nearest the fire, is the SECOND ALARM—for a serious fire.

THREE STROKES, followed by TWELVE, and repeated, is the GENERAL ALABM for a very dangerous fire, and calls out the entire department with a detail of police.

Two STROKES, slowly, indicates FIRE IS OUT One long whistle from water works, for fire, south of river. Three whistles from same, for fires north of river.

Where Rats Are Utilized. Almost everywhere in the world, except in Paris, rats are considered as a troublesome nuisance to be got rid of by any means possible. The Parisians, on the contrary, convert this nuisance into a useful member of society and a source of revenue. In Paris rats are collected from every possible source and placed in the grand pound, where the carcasses of all the animals dying in the city are thrown. These remains are speedily disposed of by the rats, which leave behind nothing but the cleanly picked bones. There are no such scavengers as rats. About four times a year these rats are killed and their skins are utilized in the everywhere admired form of Parisian gloves to decorate the hands of loveliness the world over. Nothing Lost by Being Polite. A jaguar in one's path would seem to be as undesirable a guest as a lion, and it is hard to know how to treat it. A story is told of a South American Indian finding himself suddenly confronted with a fine specimen of a jaguar that stood right in his way only a few feet ahead. There was little time to think over the situation, and it would probably have been certain death to turn and flee. With a happy notion, therefore, the man advanced, and, taking off his big broad-brimmed hat, made the animal a low bow and bade it "Good morning." The jaguar was so overcome by this unusual display of courtesy that it turned round and walked slowly away. Politeness costs nothing; indeed, if this story be true, it may save a life. About 1,200,000 articles are pledged

MASONIC. Officers of the Grand Lodge of England.

The grand lodge of England met in London in March. The Prince of Wales was unanimously re-elected grand master. The interest of the session centered in the election of grand treasurer. There was quite a contest for the position, which is regarded by our English brethren as among the greatest honors that can be conferred upon a Mason. About 3,000 votes were cast. There were three candidates. Bro. Alderman and Sheriff Joseph C. Dimsdale received 1,317; Bro. William M. Stiles, 1,900, and Bro. Charles W.Hudson, 568. Bro. Dimsdale was declared elected grand treasurer.
